Northwest Iberia Wine Tours

Why not come on an unhurried wine and food tour in Galicia, Spain's Celtic northwest fringe?

Noted for its rías or sweeping bays, many will be reminded of the west coast of Scotland or Ireland. Close to the shores of these rías you'll find some of the loveliest wineries in Spain, where the vines sweep right down to the water's edge in places.

Rías Baixas Albariño is now firmly acknowledged as one of the great white wines of the world while the seafood, described by the greatest chef in the world Ferrán Adriá as 'simply the best in the world', is the perfect pairing for Rías Baixas Albariño and other excellent Galician whites such as Ribeiro and Godello.

Visit top wineries, especially the small independent winemakers whose wonderful single vineyard wines are currently making a name for themselves around the world. Dine at cutting edge restaurants and stay on beautiful wine estates and in elegant country hotels.

It was a privilege to meet some of the region's most innovative and celebrated winemakers in person; sample the best in local cuisine in authentic surroundings; stay in historic country houses, with the perfect hosts. The whole trip was fantastic! Thanks for everything.
